

Typical Interview Questions

- Q. How are you unique?
- Q. What do you do best?
- Q. What is the last book you read?
- Q. Who is your favorite author?
- Q. Who is your favorite character?
- Q. Who is your favorite teacher?
- Q. What person has influenced you the most?
- Q. What event has influenced you the most?
- Q. What experiences stick most in your mind?
- Q. What makes you who you are?
- Q. What are your best traits?
- Q. What are your faults?
- Q. What is your family like?
- Q. Tell me about yourself.
- Q. Why do you want to go to college?
- Q. What made you select this particular College or University?
- Q. What do you think you will add to University XYZ?
- Q. What do you consider to be your greatest asset?
- Q. What do you consider to be your greatest fault?
- Q. What are you looking for in an education at our college?
- Q. To which other colleges are you applying?
- Q. If all of your teachers were in one room, what would they say about you?
- Q. Rate yourself from 1 to 10. How would your teachers rate you?
- Q. What books NOT required by the school have you read recently?
- Q. Where do you picture yourself ten years from now?
- Q. Tell me about your family.
- Q. What television shows do you watch?
- Q. What magazines and/or newspapers do you read regularly?
- Q. How do you spend a typical afternoon after school? A typical evening? A typical weekend?
- Q. Do you have any heroes, contemporary or historical?
- Q. How do you feel about an issue in current events: terrorism, nuclear power, legalization of marijuana, gun control, etc...?
- Q. What have you liked, and what have you disliked about high school?
- Q. If you were principal, what would you change?
- Q. What significant contributions have you made to your school or your community?
- Q. What is the most important thing that you've learned in high school?
- Q. We have your application, your transcript, your test scores, and recommendations. What ELSE do you want us to know about you?
- Q. What would you like to know about our school?